

CHERRY-TODD
ELECTRIC CO-OP

Co-op Country ROAD TRIP MAP

Cherry-Todd Electric powers communities across south central South Dakota and northern Nebraska, supporting the businesses, culture and community destinations that make this region a meaningful stop along the Co-op Country Road Trip.

★ Headquarters:
Mission, SD

Year Founded:
1947

Featured Road Trip Stops

1 White River Drive-In

112 US Hwy 83, White River

Category: Food

Grab a burger, fries and a classic drive-in experience at White River Drive-In, a longtime local favorite in White River. The restaurant offers travelers a welcoming stop while exploring south central South Dakota.

2 Tashina's Coffee

166 West 2nd St, Mission

Category: Food/Coffee

Enjoy handcrafted coffee and a welcoming community atmosphere at Tashina's Coffee in Mission. Owned by former Miss Indian World Tashina Red Hawk, the coffee shop has become a popular stop for both locals and travelers visiting the Rosebud Reservation region.

3 Rosebud Building Products

126 N Adams St, Mission

Category: Shopping/Local Business

Browse locally made products and building materials at Rosebud Building Products in Mission. Owned by Native American sisters from the community, the business highlights local entrepreneurship and craftsmanship within the Rosebud Reservation region.

4 Sinte Gleska University

101 Antelope Lake Cir, Mission

Category: Culture/Education

Visit Sinte Gleska University, a tribally chartered university founded to preserve and strengthen Lakota language, culture and education. The campus serves as an important educational and cultural center within the Rosebud Sioux Tribe community.

5 RST Tribal Ranch

28546-28542 Small Rd, Rosebud

Category: Agriculture/Culture

Experience the importance of agriculture and ranching within the Rosebud Sioux Tribe community at RST Tribal Ranch. The ranch supports local food systems, economic development and tribal agricultural operations across the region.